WHAT ARE YOU DOING FOR LENT THIS YEAR? Ask Anglicans what they are doing for Lent this year, and they'll probably tell you that they are giving up a favorite food, a favorite pastime or anything else they really love but isn't essential in their lives. Giving up something for Lent fosters self-discipline and tempers our desires. It is a form of fasting. It is a form of penance. It promotes spiritual growth. If you are giving up something for Lent, that's great. But think also about the possibility of doing something positive to bolster your spiritual life and make the world a better place. Look for ways that you can increase your knowledge of your faith, strengthen your spiritual life or perform special acts of mercy and kindness at home, at work, in your parish or in your community.

YOU ARE INVITED TO A LENTEN QUIET TIME
FOR EVERYTHING THERE IS A SEASON
 Facilitator: Janet Billinghamurst
 Saturday, February 27th
 10:00 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.
 To Register: Sign up in the Narthex Today

LENTEN STUDY SERIES
THE HEART OF PASSION

Contains five talks on DVD by Louis Giglio, the founder of the Passion Movement. Author of The Air I Breathe; Worship as a way of Life; I am Not but I know I AM; Welcome to the Story of God; he has impacted millions who have heard him speak and watched him on Youtube and DVDs. He has reached people of all ages but especially the collegiate age group. Each talk tells a meaningful story of God's goodness, grace and love. This Lenten Study Series will inspire, encourage and speak to God's grace and truth. See below and the next page for session descriptions.

Each Session begins with Holy Eucharist at 10:00 a.m. and Friendship Coffee. A light soup lunch will be served after each session. Volunteers to make soup are needed. Please speak to Pam or Sue. To register, sign up in the Narthex today.

Feb. 24 Indescribable: Facilitated by the Rev. Pam Orman

The heavens are telling the glory of God, and their expanse declares the work of His hands. Indescribable take us on an image-rich journey through the cosmos, allowing us to peer into God's universe to discover the amazing magnitude of His greatness and grace.

March 3 How Great is our God:
Facilitated by Carol Hanson

Our life is a miracle, and the Creator of the universe knows each of us by name. God is big enough to breathe out stars, yet intricate enough to fashion together the trillions of cells that make up every facet of who we are. And God cares about each of us & promises to carry us through. God will hold onto you and hold you together, giving strength to those who hope in His unfailing love.

March 10 The Anchor of Hope—Hope when life hurts most:
Facilitated by John Smith

March 17 The Megaphone of Hope—Hope when life hurts most:

Facilitated by the Rev. John Orman

Life isn't easy. We experience problems and setbacks every day. But during the hardest parts of life, when the bottom seems to fall out, where do we turn for peace? God offers God's self and the cross as an anchor of hope no matter what we face in life. The hope we find in Christ allows us leverage in our darkest moments.

March 24 Fruit cake and Ice Cream:

Facilitated by the Rev. Wynn Taylor

An unlikely collision of friendship & grace is demonstrated in this message that breathes hope for the spiritually searching while providing a massive kick-start for those within the church who carry the unrivaled story of God's grace and truth into a darkened world.

PRAYER VIGIL

A Message from St. Dunstan's

The prayer group of St. Dunstan's feels led to hold a prayer vigil during the 2010 Synod, to support our members of Synod as this is a very challenging and painful time for our diocese. We pray that all fifty-two parishes will participate between 5 pm on March 5th and 5 pm on March 7th. This note is directed to anyone and everyone in your parish who would be willing to pray and to coordinate people to pray for an hour (or more) in the schedule below. We believe prayer should be focused around the Synod members discerning and acting upon the wisdom and will of God. Anyone from St. Mary's who wishes to participate may sign up on the sheet in the Narthex. Prayers may be said at home. Leslie will forward the names of participants to St. Dunstan's for inclusion on the overall schedule.
